Customer Reviews

This collection of books was a great read. Rich in plots that flowed well and had me guessing what will happen to the very end. I was glued to the page if these well written stories. It also had just the right amount of tactfully written but no less steamy sex scenes for my taste ;) I look forward to reading more from this author. Bravo!

I bought the Witchblade Chronicles because the price was right and I am very happy I did. I'm not much for historical novels on the whole, but the author does a fine job of telling the tale of two witches and the possible consequences during a time when witchcraft was a burning offense. The Witchblade Chronicles was an easy and delightful read with action, romance, and tastefully written erotica. I enjoyed the read!

I always enjoy reading this author's books. This one was as good as I expected. There was action, mystery, romance and more. The paranormal is not overwhelming and adds to the story line. I would recommend this box set to anyone.

Very enjoyable read. I did prefer the first book due to more details of how her magic felt/worked. Would have liked even more depth into her abilities. Overall these stories are fun and I like the authors view of positive healing through transferring energy.

This set of two books is a wonderful 16th century story of two friends and the loves they find. I enjoyed the treatment of witches at that time and that they found their true love. One thing I would have liked would be more inclusion of the first book circumstances in the second title, so we could see how their marriage was progressing.

While these were definitely easy to read romance novels, the story in each of them is very good. These also had a hint of the paranormal in them as well, with the main women in them having some powers. It's a side plot, though, really, and only adds to the story. There were a few times where they were able to save a life, or throw something or someone, but nothing epic or truly strange. I liked that it wasn't the overarching theme, but merely something to add interest and another level to the characters. These books made me say "aahhh" in all the right parts, which I consider a good romance trait.

I can not wait for the next book. Maybe one about Ashes sister. I have enjoyed reading all of C. J. I enjoy reading about the witches and demons in this time period. She will keep you waiting for something else to happen to the main characters.

Every book I have read by CJ Archer has been very enjoyable. The stories take you through twists and turns. Highland and low emotions. All the books were great to read.
